About Jennifer

Jennifer graduated in 1970, working in rural Victoria and Melbourne before doing an MSc at London University. She then became the Supervising Speech Pathologist in Community and Child Health Services and the Rheola St Child Development Centre in Perth WA. She presented widely to forums and conferences for community health nurses, paediatricians and colleagues, as well as participating in the development of support resources.

Jennifer, who has been in Private Practice for 18 years and uses a family-centred approach, is a Certified Practising Speech Pathologist.
