Penelope Cromack qualified in Speech Pathology in 1979 and is a Certified Practising Speech Pathologist. She commenced working at Pinjarra Hospital and was instrumental in establishing the first public Speech Pathology clinic in Mandurah. She then worked for 8 years at Princess Margaret Hospital treating a wide variety of speech and language disorders and serving on head injury, cleft palate and fluency teams. After this she worked with intellectually disabled children at AIH for 2 years. In 1993 she established her own private practice in West Leederville and Joondalup. Currently these practices are located in Nedlands and Wanneroo.
